

JOB ADVERTISEMENT.

Rwanda Interlink Transport Company (RITCO Ltd) would like to recruit experienced and reliable panel beaters to improve repairing and maintaining its vehicles.

Number of positions (4)

Key duties and responsibilities

- Assess vehicle damage and determine the appropriate repair method.
- Repair or replace damaged chassis and body panels using welding, filling, and panel-beating techniques.
- Makes sure that the vehicles are well painted with RITCO's colors after repair.
- Use hand tools, hydraulic presses, and other specialist equipment.
- Align frames and body panels using measuring systems and jigs.
- Reassemble repaired vehicles and ensure parts are properly fitted and aligned.
- Maintain accurate records of work done and materials used.
- Follow health and safety procedures in the workshop at all times.
- Collaborate with mechanics, and other staff in RITCO Ltd garage.
- Remove damaged vehicle panels and parts.
- Perform other related activities according to the supervisor's request.

Job requirements and qualifications.

- Minimum 5 years relevant experience in panel beating.
- Ability to read and write at least one official language used in Rwanda.
- High level of integrity.

The interested candidates are requested to submit their application letters together with detailed CVs, any related certificates, Criminal record and copy of ID at recruitment@ritco.rw not later than 30th May 2025 at 5:00PM.

Done at Kigali, On 23/05/2025

NKUSI Godfrey
Chief Executive Officer

